Commemorating 15 Years of Merchandising in Tulsa

Years not without business trials and tribulations—war years, fraught with anxiety and little profit. But in the main years of successful merchandising and honest profit, and above all the starting and cementing of friendships with the good folks who shop at this store and with our store assistants, we're going to celebrate this fifteenth birthday in a solid, substantial way by reducing the prices of everything in the store—no reservations. Here on this page is a partial list of the bargains. There are many more at the store, for every department is participating in the sale. As an extra inducement, to avoid any disappointment during this First Anniversary Sale, we offer 10 per cent off on any article not already reduced.
